From Charleston.

Mrs. Arthur B. Koontz, of Charleston, is spending several days at Fairmont Farms. She accompanied her mother, Mrs. C. A. Sipe, here from Charleston where the latter had spent several weeks.

Brilliant Event.

The members of William Haymond chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution were hostesses on Saturday afternoon at a George Washington birthday celebration of brilliant appointments at the home of Mrs. Waitman H. Conaway, a former regent of the chapter. The guests of the occasion were members of other chapters of the D. A. R. from nearby towns. Despite the stormy day there were a large number of out of town guests present as well as a number of the chapter members. Upon the arrival of the guests at 1:30 they were served with an elegant luncheon and following the luncheon were entertained with a program of rare merit.

The main feature of the program was an address on "Americanization" by the Rev. Charles Baird Mitchell, rector of Christ church. Rev. Mitchell touched on many phases of the subject which he handled admirably and laid particular stress on the menace of socialism and bolshevism which he stated threatened the peace of the world by seeking to destroy the happiness and security of nations. The address of Rev. Mitchell was replete with thought and was thoroughly enjoyed by the women present. Another feature equally as pleasing was the singing of Mrs. Charles W. Waddell. Mrs. Waddell sang effectively and artistically "Snowflakes" by Wallinson; "Wake Up" by Phillips; "Who'll Buy My Lavender" by Edward German and "In Flanders Field" the words of which were composed by Lieut. John McCrae and the music by John Philip Sousa. Mrs. Waddell was sympathetically accompanied by Miss Mary Louise Nichols. Mrs. Clark Heavenet, state regent, of Buckhannon, made a few remarks during the progress of the program in which she urged that as many of the daughters as could would attend the Continental congress to be held in Washington in April. Mrs. Joseph Lehman, the regent of the hostess chapter presided at the meeting and closed the program with a few gracious words, in which she expressed the pleasure of the William Haymond chapter in having with it daughters from nearby chapters.

The affair was in the nature of a Colonial party and the daughters who received and those who assisted in serving were quaintly and becomingly attired in the dress of the Colonial period and these costumes with the interior and table decorations which were carried out with George Washington effects made the surroundings decidedly artistic. A large portrait of George Washington festooned with the stars and stripes was hung in a conspicuous place in the house and small American flags were given the guests as favors.

Approximately 90 were served with luncheon. Those who assisted in entertaining were Mrs. Edward F. Holbert, chairman of the entertainment committee; Mrs. Ernest Hutton, Mrs. F. R. Lyon, Mrs. James Edwin Forest Harple, Misses Sara Lyon, Martha Dickerson, Josephine Lehman, Lucille Hall, Margaret Lehman, Virginia Peddicord, Sarah Rock, Margaret Linn Hamilton, Agnes Holbert, and Albert Dickerson. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Conrad A. Sipe and Mrs. Francis E. Nichols.

Guests from out of town entertained were as follows: Daniel Davidson Chapter, Clarksburg, Mrs. Harvey F. Smith, regent; Mrs. Albert W. Rapp, Mrs. Benjamin F. Blackford, Mrs. Howard L. Cunningham, Mrs. Charles W. Furbee, Mrs. L. P. Souder, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. J. E. Law, Miss Vera Fisher, Mrs. Frederick Howard, Miss Eva Parsons.

The CHENEY

Tone, Quality—and Technique

Cheney Tone Adjuster

The Cheney will play a lullaby as soft as a whisper—or fill a large hall with a rollicking dance.

Twelve distinct gradations of tone, logically controlled at the source. Tones always crystal clear, sweet and pure.

"THE LONGER YOU PLAY IT, THE SWEETER IT GROWS."

A virtuoso could scarcely display his art with an ordinary violin or piano. Perfect technique alone does not make a master.

So with phonograph records. It is easy to play them—but the Cheney, like a Stradivarius violin, gives renditions new beauty. Its rich, majestic tones are unrivalled.

Acoustic principles, never applied before to phonographs, have set The Cheney unquestionably in a class apart.
